Better Experience

Quality Matters

- Our plans are newer and more innovative, with the modern features you desire, like loads of storage space and gourmet kitchens.
- We use higher quality materials and products - like Stainless Steel Appliances, Granite Countertops, Solid Wood Maple Cabinets, Hardwood Floors, 12x12 Tile in all Baths and Frameless Shower Enclosure.
- Our trade partners are true craftsmen and take pride in their work.
- Michael Schnitzer, President of Stanley Martin Custom Homes, has over 20 years experience in building, has managed the construction of over 2,000 homes, and he has won the award for Best Home Built in America.
- John Jorgenson has over 20 years of construction and real estate experience. John understands the needs of today's home buyers and will guide you through the purchasing process.
